Dear parents,

The APEEE communicates mainly by email and on its website or secondarily on its Facebook page or Twitter account. We do not communicate, in any way, via electronic communication channels such as WhatsApp. The creation, management and publication of messages on these groups are carried out independently of our activity and remain the sole responsibility of each parent who joins the group and communicates in the group. We cannot be held responsible for the content shared and the processing of the data made in these groups, regardless of the quality of the person or parent who creates or administers the group. If you have any questions, please contact the administrator of the group(s) to which you belong.

Thank you for your understanding.
Best regards,

APEEE Bxl II
